A CAREER OF ROMANCE.

A Clarksville Man Marries the Daughter of a King.

[Athens, N. Y., Telegram.]

Captain Edward Ernest Maynard is at Clarksville, Tenn., on a visit to his friends and relatives. Captain Maynard's comparatively brief career is one of thrilling interest. When he was fourteen years old he ran away from home and made his way to New York where his uncle, H. P. Kirkham, secured him a place on a vessel bound for Africa. He made an uneventful voyage of a year and returned to the United States with his zeal for a sailor's life not the least abated, and soon afterward joined a ship bound for Hong Kong, China. There were no happenings of importance until the vessel arrived in the neighborhood of the Caroline Islands, where she was overtaken by a storm and driven upon reefs, going down a short distance from shore. The officers and crew landed without loss of life. They were congratulating themselves when, to their dismay, a band of black savages closed in on them with wild yells, brandishing their weapons in the most menacing manner possible. The terrified sailors offered no resistance and made an unconditional surrender. The savages did not prove to be the blood-thirsty creatures the shipwrecked sailors supposed. Instead of being roasted or boiled in pots they were treated very kindly. The captives were distributed among the tribe, each one placed in a family, where he received comparatively good treatment. Ernest's fine appearance so won the good will of the king that he was given a place in the royal household. He made it a study to please, and succeeded so well that he was treated like a crown prince with an ancient pedigree.

Ripans Tablets banish pain.

A Test for Forgery.

The famous hand writing expert, David N. Carvalho, asserts that "no man does or can write his signature twice exactly alike." He therefore advances the startling proposition that "when two signatures purporting to have been written by the same person are precisely alike it is safe to conclude that one of them is a forgery."

Slacked Line in the Sickroom.

Sore throats are very prevalent in the autumn, and are especially prevalent such days as we are having now. A homely Long Island cure, said to be very effective, is to slack line in the sickroom, so the patient can inhale some of the fumes.—New York Journal.

A Dangerous Era.

Tom—We always ought to tell pleasant. Jack—That's so. We can't tell nowadays what may have a camera concealed about him ready to catch us.—Exchange.

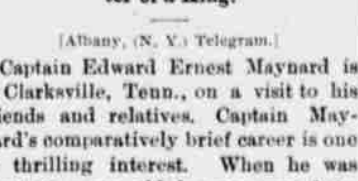

A reporter, in describing the celebration of her hundredth birthday by an old lady, naively says, "She talked all day without showing the least sign of fatigue."

The percentage of consumptives who first get their germs from the milk of diseased cows is large—larger in fact than statistics can point out.

Some of the busiest steel pens of the $50,000 world are daily used all over the world by the fictionists.

EXPLANATION.—The following picture contains four faces, a man and his three daughters. Any one can find the man's face, but it is not so easy to distinguish the faces of the three young ladies. The picture was published in a few newspapers some time ago, and attracted considerable attention to our standard remedies. We now offer a new prize competition in connection with it. As the sole object is to introduce our medicines into new homes, those time tested the famous combination are requested to compete in this one. As to the reliability of "The Ford Pill Co.," and the estimation in which their medicines are held in Toronto, Canada, and in fact known, patrons are referred to the daily newspapers, wholesale druggists and leading business houses generally of Toronto.

The proprietor of "The Ford Pill Co." will give a elegant pair of Shattland Pongies to the first person who can make out the three daughters faces. To the second will be given an elegant Lady's Gold Watch, set in sapphires and diamonds. To the third will be given a pair of Ladies' Diamond Earrings. To the fourth will be given a handsome China Dinner Service. To the fifth will be given a Kodak Camera. To the sixth, a Swiss Music Box. To the seventh, a French Mantel Clock. To the eighth, an elegant Banquet Lamp. To the ninth, a pair of Crown Derby Vases. To the tenth, a complete Lawn Tennis set, and many other prizes in order of date. Every competitor must cut out the above and send it with a U. S. two-cent stamp for one of the following "Prize Remedies": "Ford's Price Pills," "Ford's Price Catarrh Remedy," or "Ford's Price Cough Cure." Select any one of the above remedies you prefer. Address "The Ford Pill Co., C. W. Wellington & Bay Sts., Toronto, Canada." The person whose envelope is marked first will be awarded the first prize, and the others in order of merit. As this advertisement appears simultaneously throughout the United States, every one has an equal opportunity. To the person sending the first correct answer will be given an elegant Upright Grand Piano, valued at $500.00. To the first person from the farthest corner answer will be given a splendid fine Gold "Sandoz" Watch, which strikes the hour and quarter hours on small calculated gong at pleasure, and valued at $300.00. To the second from the far corner will be given a fine Gold "Sandoz" Watch, which strikes the hour and quarter hours on small calculated gong at pleasure, and valued at $300.00.
